

WATER MANAGEMENT POLICY

University shall conserve water and minimize its use through efficient management practices. Water conservation requires monitoring of the consumption and reducing the leakage and elimination of excessive use.

University should promote efficient water use techniques, viz. sprinkler in its gardening processes. University should support practices of rain water harvesting and enhance ground water recharge through traditional recharge.